“ Dear Mom,

I'm going to miss making breakfast and eating with you every morning. I remember that after breakfast you would always say "Ponme el YouTube, hecha una máquina y saca la basura". I'm going to miss your smiles and your funny jokes.

I remember you would ring your little white bell when you wanted me to bring your medicine, water or something to eat. Now you can ring your little white bell in heaven. I love you very much Mom.

Your daughter,
Sylvia Aparicio

“ Mom,

I love you with all my heart. I'm going to miss buying you the things that you liked and the phone calls that we shared every day. It's not going to be the same for me. It hurts my heart that you're gone. I know I will see you one day in heaven.

I remember when you would look at me and begin to laugh. When I asked you why, you would say that it's because of the funny things I say! You saying that brought joy to my heart. I'm going to miss you so much.

Your daughter,
Virginia Aparicio

“ My Mom, my best Friend, my rock, my biggest supporter in everything I did. You gave me the best advice always and for that I'm forever grateful. What you instilled in me I hope to pass on to my daughter. To me you will always be as I always called you (My Little Lady) The strongest one I ever knew. For everything you taught me I will forever be grateful. It's only been a little while and I already miss you so much. I miss calling you in the mornings and hearing your voice and in the evenings talking about how your day went. But I know that you now can rest and that you are at peace
I will forever miss you
I will forever Love you

Your Daughter

“ Mom,

I'm going to miss you so much. It hasn't sunk in yet that your'e gone because you were with us for so long and I thank God for that time. We became even closer the last few years and I will always remember the times we would go outside when the weather was beautiful and sit and talk for hours. I will always appreciate the advice and guidance you gave me and how you were always right about everything.

When you would tell us funny stories about the past, you could never get to the funny part because you would always laugh and we would all laugh just watching you. When we all get together and reminisce about the time we had with you, we will have fond memories of your storytelling and the good times we had as a family.

I'm going to remember the time that I gave you a little red bear made with small red roses for Mother's Day last year. Since that day when I would visit you, I would ask you "how's my little red bear doing today?'. I would also ask you what the red roses stood for and you responded that you didn't know. I would answer that they stood for "Love" and I remember that you would smile. I will keep that smile in my memory always.

I love you so much Mom and I will keep you in my memory and in my heart forever.

Your loving son,
Rudy Aparicio
